

24 HOUR SEARCH
NEW YORK

Career Strategy, Resume Development, and Professional Positioning

High level overview.

This work begins with a private, one-to-one conversation focused on clarity and direction. We examine where you are today, what is no longer serving you, and how you want to shape your next chapter. Engagements support professionals navigating career pivots, leadership transitions, re-entry after time away, or moments of recalibration.

Personalized advisory sessions.

Sessions are tailored to your situation and anchored in outcomes. Focus areas may include:

- Defining target roles and evaluating alignment.
- Translating experience into market-relevant language.
- Interview readiness and compensation strategy.
- Job search structure, outreach strategy, and professional presence.

Each session concludes with clear actions and a defined path forward.

Interview preparation.

For clients entering an interview process, we provide focused, role-specific preparation. This may include:

- Live interview simulations with direct feedback.
- Refinement of your professional narrative and decision rationale.
- Practical approaches for navigating different interview formats and stakeholders.

Preparation is calibrated to role level and industry context.

Resume and LinkedIn development

Materials are designed to support where you are going next. Deliverables include:

- A resume written for your target level and function.
- A LinkedIn profile aligned with the resume and optimized for visibility and credibility.
- One complimentary revision is included.

Testimonials:

"After seven months of applying to jobs with no traction, I decided to work with Kristin. Within days of updating my resume and LinkedIn, I had two interviews lined up with global firms. By the end of the week, I had an offer to lead a national practice."

"I went from 0 recruiters looking at my profile to 15! Your work is magic!"

"I have no words...[my new resume] makes me look like a true professional!"
