No retainers. No guesswork. Just precision, speed, and the IP of a senior headhunter — delivered like a product.

WHY CLIENTS TRUST US

Kristin Taylor has built and led executive search arms across various verticals and industries. With over 1,200 career placements under her belt, she's placed revenue-driving operators, trained internal recruiters, and advised founders on hiring strategy for over a decade.

24-Hour Search distills that experience into a repeatable product — giving you the clarity and direction of a retained search without the long timelines or overhead.
